

Revolutionizing Access To and Results From the Early-Stage Asset Class

Purpose & Vision

ECS is a venture capital firm investing in innovative seed and growth-stage technology-based companies capable of high financial return and positive human, social or environmental impact. It provides a diversified and multi-stage portfolio of this asset class to investors ranging from accredited individuals to institutions of all sizes. Due to its unusual structure and operating style, ECS is itself innovative and impactful, fully investor focused, highly networked and collaborative, globally active and evergreen. We are passionately committed, diligent, creative, confident yet humble.

Constituencies Served

Investors Not Presently Participating In, Or Obtaining Adequate Results From, this distinct and attractive asset class, due to constraints of experience, finances or time, perceptions of risk, or the systemic impediments to most individual investors' success. ECS approximates a highly effective "Index" or "Composite" for this high return, minimally correlated and socially impactful asset class.

Already Active Angels, Groups or Institutions

seeking better or geographically diversified deal flow, greater resources for their own rounds, or to educate and recruit more participants to this critical economic activity. ECS provides investors already directly participating in this asset class with deeply curated and well-understood opportunities warranting larger follow-on investments.
